

AUTO LAW IS TO BE ENFORCED.

Burgess Evans Announces That After Today It Must Be Regarded.

NOT TOLERATE INFRACTIONS

If a Chauffeur Does Not Have Front And Rear Lights or If He Is Going Too Fast He Will Be Arrested by the Police.

The poor pedestrian will probably have an opportunity to smile once in a while now since Burgess J. L. Evans has begun a crusade against reckless and negligent automobile drivers. This action followed complaints by Charles Davidson and other prominent and influential citizens. The bureau of Burgess Evans' statement is the fact that several autos are not carrying both front and rear lights. He has issued instructions to all the policemen to arrest any auto driver who does not have both front and rear lights burning after dark. They are also instructed to see that no other provisions of the new act are violated.

Excessive speed is charged to some drivers and this will be given attention. Most of the buzz wagon drivers are giving Burgess Evans their hearty support in his stand against reckless drivers. The bureau of Burgess Evans' statement is the fact that several autos are not carrying both front and rear lights. He has issued instructions to all the policemen to arrest any auto driver who does not have both front and rear lights burning after dark. They are also instructed to see that no other provisions of the new act are violated.

Last night's bad accident was narrowly averted at North Pittsburgh and Fayette streets. Two big automobiles reached the intersection at the same time, but their drivers averted an accident. The autos had neither front nor rear lights. This was reported and brought up a general discussion of the violation of the automobile law.

ENTIRE TOWN IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Troops Hurrying to Assistance of Milton, Delaware, Where 2,000 Persons Are Homeless.

United Press Telegram.
DOVER, Del., Aug. 12.—The State troops with tents and provisions are enroute to Milton, three miles south of here, which was totally destroyed by fire early today, making 2,000 people homeless. Out of the 300 buildings only a dozen remain.
The fire engine house was destroyed early in the conflagration, leaving the town without apparatus to fight the flames. The loss of property is estimated at $300,000, as all the people are homeless. The home of Governor Pender is among those destroyed.

Fully 40,000 Persons View Feature of the Western Pennsylvania Firemen's 16th Convention.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Aug. 12.—The main feature of the Western Pennsylvania Firemen's sixteenth annual convention here was the big parade. Fifty companies were in line, with their apparatus and bands. The chief marshal was William S. Cook.

Free Methodists Arrive in Numbers for a Rousing Meeting.

There will be inaugurated tonight a unique Camp Meeting service in Hogg's Orchard on the West Side, when the Free Methodists will open a service there, the first to be held in 11 years in Connellsville. At least 15 ministers will participate in the services that are to be conducted and already tents have been pitched to accommodate between 40 and 50 families.

Rev. A. D. Zinsler, the presiding elder of the district in charge of the movement, and families have been arriving from all sections to attend this annual outing and religious service. The meeting is an old fashioned one, consisting of the old time songs, old time method of preaching and the old time method of conducting camp meetings, and this is really a camp meeting as the followers of the faith camp together on the site that is selected annually for the event.

Last year the Free Methodists encamped at Indiana, Pa., and 11 years ago they camped in Connellsville and at that time attracted larger crowds to their gatherings. This year as one of the special speakers the Free Meth-

IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS EXPOSE WHITE SLAVE EVIL IN NEW YORK.

A scandal of magnitude is likely to follow the report of the congressional commission on immigration if statements given out by members of the commission and officials at Ellis Island are to be taken seriously. Since his recent reappearance to the post of commissioner at Ellis Island William Williams, known far and wide as a chief of staff, W. F. Ray, and assistant, J. M. Thornley, adds, F. S. Mitchell, J. C. Reuzor, H. C. Campbell, Lou Richards, M. W. McCandless, Sum Briley, J. K. Fleming, Roy Wengler. Fully 40,000 persons witnessed the procession.

Last Thursday night a fire broke out at the stable of W. J. Jamison, a grocer. It was discovered by F. G. Lewis, fire chief of the East Carnegie department, who ran into the burning building and rescued the horses before the arrival of the fire department. The blaze was extinguished before serious damage had been done. The fire is believed to have been started by an incendiary, as Chief Lewis says he saw a man run from the alley. A moment afterward the flames burst out.

Thursday at 3 o'clock George Shirkbaum, a member of the North Braddock fire department, was found unconscious on a doorstep in Sixth avenue. He was taken to the hotel where his company is stopping and a physician worked with him until daylight before he was out of danger. Shirkbaum says he was given knock-out drops and robbed of $200. He says he took a drink with a stranger in a barroom and that is the last he remembers.

STORK WINNER AGAIN.

Except in Connellsville Township, George Brown's district. The stork is the popular bird in Registrar George B. Brown's district covering the vital statistics and the fowl of the long bill and legs comes across in July a winner by 11 points. Connellsville township is the only portion of the district that scored more deaths than births, the tally being 8 to 4.

In Connellsville borough there were 28 births to 17 deaths, and in Bullskin township six births to two deaths. The record of the entire district was 36 births and 27 deaths.

There will be congregational singing each evening and services will be arranged for each day that are both interesting and instructive. The members of the religious order who have already arrived have pitched their tents and the section has named a home like appearance. The members of the faith are accompanied by their wives and husbands and as soon as arriving made each tent a place of entertainment the same as in their own homes. Representatives are here from Indiana, Homer City, Blairsville, Jeannette, Arona, Mt. Pleasant, Patchman and Bellevernon. There is no church of the faith in Connellsville, but it is said that many attend the services that are regularly conducted and that the West Side will be an interesting place during the coming week seems assured.

LOCAL MAN BUYS
BLOCK IN GREENE

F. E. Markell Secures 14-Acre Tract
in Greene County—West Virginia Sales.

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 12.—James Rush has disposed of a 14-acre coal tract in Wayne township, Greene county, to F. E. Markell of Connellsville. While the price was not made public it is understood to have brought a high figure.

Mr. Rush disposed of his interest as well as that of Charles Rush, Jr. Several transfers of West Virginia coal were also made public today. Grant Stevens and wife sold a 1/2 interest in a 104-acre tract in Clay district, Monongalia county, W. Va., to William Black of Uniontown for $150 per acre, while the same purchaser secured 25 acres adjoining this tract for $135 an acre from W. A. Eldred and others of Waynesburg, W. Va. Eldred and others also disposed of 25 acres in the same locality to Max Hartman of Uniontown for something like $150 an acre.

JACK COTTER IS SOLD TO SYRACUSE

If He Makes Good the Connellsville
Management Will Receive $500
For Him.

The Connellsville Baseball Club this morning announced the sale of Pitcher Jack Cotter to the Syracuse, New York State League, team. The Syracuse management has been dickered with the club owners here for some time relative to Cotter's value and this morning accepted the terms which were submitted.

Cotter is to join the Syracuse team and if he makes good by the end of the State League season the club here will receive $500. Otherwise the player will revert back to the Cokers.

As Cotter had jumped the locals and was of no value to them, it was considered best to accept the offer of the New York club. Even if Cotter fails to make good he will again become the property of the club. As Jack has been anxious to play ball for some weeks past it is believed he will make good in the State League.

SPECIAL CARS.

To Handle the Soldiers of the Philippines at Greensburg.
Several special cars are being run on the Greensburg division of the West Penn to handle the big crowd of Philippine Insurrection veterans who are attending the reunion of the Tenth Regiment at Oakford Park today.

Hundreds of old soldiers and their friends are on hand celebrating the event. A feature of the day was the big clam bake which was held at noon.

Gas Rates Advanced.
The Peoples National Gas Company has advanced the rate on its Latrobe consumers from 25 to 27 1/2 cents per 1,000 feet.

COUNCIL TAKES UP DISPUTED LINES.

Members Find Borough Engineer Was Right According to Borough Plot.

MAY BE AMICABLE ADJUSTMENT

Two Properties Have Been Built Over the Property Lines and Would Cost Money to Have Them Set Back.
Law Has Never Been Established.

Town Council met last evening and went over the disputed property lines along Grape alley at its intersection with Water street but the only action taken was to direct Burgess Evans to notify the Pennsylvania railroad to take no steps toward occupying the land given them by the Borough Engineer until the matter is settled.

The railroad, it is understood, is perfectly willing to accede to this request as it is not anxious to have a flaw in its title. The work being put in is of such an expensive nature that the road could not afford to tear it out in case its line would be found incorrect.

As a result of the meeting it was found that the Borough Engineer was correct in his lines, which were run according to the plot of the town which was laid out in 1872. The lines run by Borough Engineer J. B. Hogg and those run by former Borough Engineer S. M. Foster agree to the inch.

The matter is now up to Borough Solicitors B. C. Higbee and S. A. Goldsmith. The question at issue is whether a thoroughfare is as it was laid out by the plot, whether the 20 feet of land used for years by the public does not become the alley, regardless of the lines of the engineers. This question has come up several times in a court decision. In the matter of the public ground, Howard vs. Connellsville Borough and Connellsville Planning Mill Company vs. Durst, this question entered into the litigation, but each time an amicable settlement was made without the court ruling on the question at issue.

It was shown that not only does the building on the north side of the alley encroach upon the borough property, as laid down by the plot, but the property of J. C. Moore is also over the line several feet.

Were those properties moved back to the proper line it would entail enormous expense upon the owners, and it is probable that an amicable arrangement will be decided upon, which will suit all parties concerned. The Pennsylvania railroad is within its rights in claiming the property to the line given by the Borough Engineers, but this matter will be threshed out later.

ROSTRAVER HARVEST HOME ON AUGUST 21

Dr. Cartwright and Attorney Carr Will Be the Speakers at Fifth Annual Gathering.

The fifth annual Harvest Home Picnic, the big event of the year among the people of Rostraver township and their friends, will be held at the Thomas McClain grove, near Smithton, on Saturday, August 21. Apopular speaker for many years has been Rev. C. L. E. Cartwright, Ph. D., formerly pastor of the Scottish Methodist Episcopal Church, and now pastor of one of the largest churches in Pittsburgh, who will deliver an address. A new speaker for the gathering on the day will be W. Russell Carr, "the boy orator of Uniontown," who has been engaged. The Webster cornet band will furnish the music.

Partly Cloudy.
Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday and a moderate temperature are the forecast of the Weather Bureau at noon today.

BALLINGER AND PINCHOT CLASH OVER LANDS AND WATERWAYS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—It is constantly being in semi-official circles here that the clash between Richard A. Ballinger, Secretary of the Interior, and Gifford Pinchot, head of the Government Forestry Department, over the conservation of timber lands and waterways will result in the retirement of one or the other of these officials. Mr. Pinchot in his speech before the Irrigation Congress at Spokane directly charged that a water power trust was threatening to grab the resources of the Northwest and that "legal technicalities" should not be allowed to stand in the way of the proper conservation of these resources. This was regarded as a criticism of Mr. Ballinger's policy, if not the policy of the Administration. Since Mr. Ballinger has come into office he has restored to entry and settlement 180,000,000 acres of public lands which in the last days of the Roosevelt administration were withdrawn from entry as a part of Mr. Roosevelt's conservation policy.

ADELINE THOMAS HAD WHITE BEAU

Was Fined $10 For Disorderly Conduct in an Alley off Pittsburgh Street.

Adeline Thomas, colored, was the star prisoner in police court this morning when arraigned for disorderly conduct. Adeline was charged with having been seen in an alley off of Pittsburgh street in company with a white man and their actions were not altogether proper. Adeline was fined $10 but decided to take 10 days in the bastille.

Six drunks were arraigned before Burgess Evans and assessed the usual fine. Two of them were fortunate in establishing a credit account and were permitted to leave on condition that they come to the front in the near future with $2.50 each.

Harry Ford, a negro, was arrested by Constable J. W. Mitchell. He had a big knife on him at the time and Mitchell said he had been disposing of phony rings. Ford said he found the knife and decided selling the rings. He said he merely tried to borrow 50 cents on one of them from a friend. He was given the alternative of leaving town or having the cases against him pushed, so he decided to leave.

Fourth Story Window Alighting on Their Heads.

United Press Telegram.
NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—In a small tenement fire today, Mrs. Esther Schewiner clasped her little daughter, Eva, aged four years, in her arms and jumped out of a fourth story window. They landed on their heads on the pavement and were instantly killed. Mrs. Schewiner was panic stricken when she heard the cry of "fire" in the building, and calling her family, jumped from the window before any one could interfere to stop her. The fire did little damage.

TWO DRIVERS AND AN OWNER FINED.

Day of Reckoning at Dawson.
Races for Alleged Crooked Work.

LOU WESTWOOD POCKETED

The Largest Crowd of the Meet Attended the Races and There is Every Probability That An Even Larger One Will Be Present Today.

Yesterday was a day of reckoning for drivers at the Dawson races and stiff fines were applied to two drivers and an owner for alleged crooked work in the last heat. The owner and driver of Frankie Mills, in the last race, were fined $25 each, while the driver of Nan Elder paid a similar fine.

These two horses, it is alleged, were driven in such a manner that Lou Westwood was pocketed and unable to win the race, although it was apparent that John Herron, the winner, was making little effort to come down the stretch ahead of the field. All bets on the last two heats were called off, as were those on the result of the whole race.

This is the only unpleasant feature which has marred the races at Dawson this week. Experienced horsemen say the drivers in the last heat of the final race exhibited poor judgment and their efforts to let John Herron win were so plain as to be apparent to everyone on the track.

Arthur J. Porter, owner and trainer of "Gunner," the trick horse, which is drawing large crowds at the races, also has a handsome pair of Kentucky drivers and riders, that are attracting attention.

In spite of the threatening weather a monster crowd attended the third day of the harness racing at Dawson yesterday. There was a good card, too, and the winners were loudly applauded. It was a day of favorites, the wise ones getting in right every time. In only one of the three events was there any doubt as to the ultimate outcome and that was in the 17 trot for the Vanderbilt Hotel Stake of $2,000. In this race Admiral Schley, a Dawson horse driven by J. A. Shaffer of Dawson, was the popular stepper, although the odds favored Bervado, the winner.

Although the best Admiral Schley could do was land second money, he made Bervado cut a chip his driver has been trying to avoid all season. The second and third heats were run in 2:15 1/4, which puts Bervado in the 2:15 class, and Admiral Schley was right at his heels all the time. The other horses in the race were merely adjuncts to the landscape and were not in the running. Tearline was second in the first heat but gave way to Admiral Schley in the succeeding trials.

The 2:10 pace was a procession with Waverly leading the way. There was a pretty race for position between the remaining three horses but Waverly was so far in the lead every time that the race lost quite a little of its interest.

The wise ones picked John Herron to win the 2:25 pace and were not disappointed. In this event William Strough entered a green starter, Partner Girl, but tore a wheel off his sulky the first time the horses scored and the animal was drawn. It was a maiden race for both Partner Girl and her driver, and the Dawson enthusiasts were disappointed over the mishap. The summary:
Vanderbilt Hotel Stake, $2,000—2:17 Trot.

School Board Gets Another Batch of Money From Collector.

The School Board got another batch of money yesterday when Tax Collector George B. Brown turned over $3,955.35 of the 1909 taxes that have been collected so far. Of the 1908 tax, he paid $222.28, having deducted to amount overpaid last year.

The 1909 tax was divided as follows: General fund, $2,305.68; Building fund, $1,039.18; Sinking fund, $450.44. The 1908 tax was divided, $136.79 going into the General fund and $85.49 to the Building fund.

Treasurer Charles H. Balsey announced this morning that Tax Collector Charles M. Miller of the West Side has not yet made his 1909 returns. This was due on August 10, and will probably be made in a day or two.

Treasurer Balsey announces that he will insist upon prompt collections by the Tax Collectors and in this stand he is backed by the entire School Board.

Since times have been improving taxes have been coming in more rapidly and things are looking brighter about the tax collector's office. For more than a year Mr. Brown has

FACTS AND DELUSIONS.
OF THE THAW CASE.

The decision in the Thaw case was a great surprise to the prisoner and to a great many other people, but the chief reason which Justice Mills gives for his conclusion that Thaw is an incurable paranoiac is most surprising.
The Justice says Thaw's belief in White's depravity was a delusion. We have been under the impression that there was other testimony besides that of Thaw concerning White's depravity, and that this testimony was strong enough to be conclusive with the public.

The Thaw case points a number of moral, among which may be mentioned the fact that with the assistance of a few able assistants no sane man is safe from incarceration in the madhouse save from the saving common sense of a jury of his peers. If he is permitted to have them for judges.

GENERAL BRADDOCK
AND COLONEL CRAWFORD.
The public spirit and patriotism of Uniontown has been demonstrated by the formation of a Braddock Memorial Association for the purpose of keeping green the grave and the memory of the British General who led the British and Colonial forces to ambush and defeat on the banks of the Monongahela.

Connellsville should follow the good example by the formation of a Crawford Memorial Association for keeping green the memory of Colonel Crawford, a man of not such great and vain pretensions as the English General, but one who did vastly more for this country in times of peace as well as in times of war, one who was finally sacrificed at the stake as a burnt offering to civilization and progress and who suffered that martyrdom with a hero's calm and the admiration of stout men and a patriot, a skilled woodman and an American citizen. If Braddock's memory is worthy of perpetuation, much more so is the memory of the man of whom Washington said, "He was an officer of much care and prudence; brave, active and capable."

No matter what the borough records show as to the proper street line, if the citizens have built their houses on different lines which have in times past been given to them under borough authority the borough cannot after this length of time step in and take advantage of its own wrong. The law of punctual possession is founded in equity. There should be some measure of protection to those who have improved property.

The authorities of Springfield and Saville townships should invoke the law against unlicensed gypsy invasion.

Monongahela railroad contractors are charged with having diverted the course of a small run. The Moncon-port people charge certain railroad interests with having diverted towaters of Indian creek. The question of water diversion and pollution is getting to be a very live one.

Connellsville coppers do not need Marathon training.

The coal operators along the Wabash-Territorial railway have merged their traffic interests. That's a step in the right direction. The operators should keep it up.

The Dawson tract was dusty, but it wasn't half as dusty as the offers of the bookies.

The United States Circuit Court has drawn some "good men and true" from Fayette county.

The Western Pennsylvania Firemen's Association is in session at Beaver Falls, but the insurance rates have not been lowered.

The suspicion is deepening that the managers of the Marianna mines have a press agent on the pay roll.

Foreign labor is giving Canada trouble, too. It is the desire of both the American and the Canadian governments to deal justly with all strangers who come among their people, but it is necessary for all such strangers to understand that they must obey the laws just the same as citizens, and that they are unjustly oppressed or wronged that they must depend upon the law for redress and never upon acts of violence.

ged persistency of Cromwell's men.

It may be well to explain that the

The midsummer has passed without any serious dullness in the steel and iron trade. From a coke trade point of view it may be said that the summer has nearly ended and the harvest is just beginning.

humanity would be better satisfied.

China still distrusts Wu Ting Fang.
The old minister has been too friendly with the Peking Devils. Wu's feet Peking has not learned the whole lesson of diplomacy.

The Methodism which is free is coming to Conneltsville. All activities are free. There may be more freedom in some than in others, but all is good.

Pennsylvanians protest against coal and iron taxation in West Virginia.
They are still buying some of the lands. They probably have faith in the future justice of the West Virginia authorities and the future value of West Virginia coal lands.

The small car is being eliminated roads as being out of date. This is an

Banking Commissioner Berkeley refers to the simple life of Somerset.
There has been the subject of some criticism from time to time, but upon the whole he has made a good officer, and he takes with him into private life the

A New Coke Region Merger.
Connellsville News.

Merge's room to be the order of the day in the Coke Region. The ink was hardly dry on the options on independent plant and coke merger before minds set to work thinking out other combinations. The result is that movements are now under way for the bringing together of the independent breweries and the distilleries of Fayette county.

Makers of beer and whiskey have followed in the wake of the coke operators. Wherever there is a large coke works or coal mine there will be found a brewery or distillery. The laborers who work in the mines or at the coke ovens are of a class that want their beer and their whiskey. Most of the laborers are foreigners and in the Old World study consumption of liquor is more pronounced than it is here.
The foreigners bring their customs with them to this country and a glass of beer or a drink of something stronger after their day's work is done is what a majority of them choose to treat a part of the pleasure they get out of life.

Right or wrong, it seems they must have it. They go to Sunday School and attend church, but they drink also and think nothing of it. On account of the ink of this class of citizens into the coke region the making of beer and whiskey has been made a very profitable business hereabouts. In the more flourishing communities the brewers and distillers make money as fast as the coke and coal operators.

Uncle Sam: I certainly have the laugh on the future historian.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

United Press Special.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Down in the basement of the big marble office building for Senators there is a wonderful collection of kitchen furniture for which there has as yet been absolutely no use. Thousands of dollars have been spent upon it but not so much as a steak has been broiled. The whole plant is idle and likely to remain so for a long time.

The fact is that it is impossible to find anyone willing to undertake the job of running the dining rooms and kitchens. The latter is so big and planned on such an extensive scale that it strikes the ordinary caterer with awe. It would take an army of cooks and scullions to run it at its full capacity. But the main reason for the difficulty in securing anyone to shoulder the contract is the financial one. Would it pay? Those who have investigated the subject declare that it would not. The Senate is perfectly willing to supply free of charge all the kitchen utensils and appliances, wood and coal, electricity for heating and light, table linen and naperry, crockery and silver. All this enter would have to do would be to pay for the food and help. Yet they figure they would lose money, and they are probably right.

Practically only one meal a day is taken by Senators in the restaurant now operated in the Capitol building, and that is luncheon. Although there are many that indulge in quite substantial dishes, yet there are not a few who content themselves with a bowl of bread and milk or even an apple. There is not much money to be made out of them. They have breakfasted before they start for the Capitol and go home for their dinners. Or course, there is always the travelling public to feed and the army of clerks, messengers, etc., but it is practically a one-meal proposition and it does not look good to the caterer. Consequently, it is probable that the Senate will have to run its expensive kitchen and dining-rooms itself. The proposition is to create a new governmental position—that of "caterer to the Senate"—and pay a good salary to the man selected for the job. If this is done the restaurant in the Capitol building will be closed.

There are six rooms to the office building kitchen. All of them are large and one is over a hundred feet long. That is where the meats are to be cooked. There's a couple of big broilers almost large enough for a barbecue. And there are three enormous copper bowls for the concoction of soups, each of which would readily accommodate two men—the bowls, not the soup! The meat room is equipped with nickel-plated refrigerators capable of holding half a dozen sides of beef besides a proportionate number of whole sheep and pigs. There is also a small refrigerator, a butcher's block and running water conveniences. There's a pass and bread baking room with an electric ice breaker and an electric ice cream freezer. There's a room where the dishes are to be washed by an electric washer and where knives are to be sharpened on an electrically driven revolving steel. Altogether it is as completely furnished a kitchen as can well be imagined. No expense has been spared to promote speed and cleanliness in the preparation of the Senatorial meals and the whole plant is on a scale big enough for a large hotel.

per cubic yard; superstructure, Nelson-Morydith Company, $428.

WEATHER FORECAST.

ers; Saturday, partly cloudy; light to moderate variable winds, mostly east.

August Bargains.

The final wind-up of the bargain season for this summer. Not bothering so much about the "prices" that goods will bring as we are how to get rid of every piece of summer goods. Some of these bargains we have enough of to tell you about here. Others not enough left to tell about and they go to the bargain tables to be picked up by early choosers. That's one of the reasons for asking you to visit this store as often as you can. You'll find every bargain plainly marked and we want you to be the judge for yourself as to whether the goods you see will be a bargain to you or not.

Children's Dresses at 1/3 Off.

A table of these in the cloak room. Children's colored dresses that sold for from $1.00 up to $4 each. Sizes 2 to 6 years.

Turkish Towels at 25c the Pair.

Size 18 inches wide by 36 inches long. Hommed ends and worth in a regular way 40c the pair. What we have of these you'll find on a table as you enter the door. It's a towel bargain worth the price and more too.

More White Waists at $1.

This dollar waist table has been a popular place during the weeks past. We've added more waists for the coming week's selling and you'll get big waist value for your dollar at this table all the week.

Muslin Underwear Bar- gains.

Take a look at the dollar table in the dress goods aisle. Ladies' and children's garments that sold for from one-half to double this price. We ask you to examine the garments, see how they are made, the material from which they are made and tell us what you think of these bargain tables of ours.

Children's White Dresses at 50c.

Sizes 2 to 6 years. Dresses that sold for 75c and $1.00. A table of these at the front of the store.
Fifty cents hardly pays for the material and you'll not find the making has been slighted in any way.

The Remnant Tables.

Short lengths at prices that will tempt you to buy. Plenty of them and of every kind from wash goods to silks. Want you to look them over. You can tell from the prices how badly we want to get rid of them. Every day sees a change in these remnant tables.

About the New Suits.

Monday, August 16, we make the first showing of the new Fall Suits and whether you want to buy now or later, here or elsewhere we invite you to come in and look these over. There will not be a showing of high class novelties at extraordinary prices but clean tailor-made suits in the colors and styles and materials that you will want for the coming Fall season's wear.
The showing will be the largest in suits priced around $25 and $30 and ask you to come and see them.

NEW PRINCIPAL WAS ELECTED.

Landis Tanger of Bedford Chosen by the Scott-
dale Board

FROM SEVERAL APPLICANTS

Picnic Association Will Hold Its Final Meeting Tonight—Marriage of Popular Young Couple—Bald Robbery of Store.

SCOTSDALE, Aug. 13.—After several ballots upon the names of half a dozen candidates for the vacancy caused by the resignation of Prof. Edgar Reed, as Superintendent of the Scottsdale schools, Landis Tanger, who has been a teacher in the J. H. Ford High school, was elected by the Scottsdale Board of Education last night, at a special called meeting. Prof. C. R. Shultz, Principal of the High school, was brought forward among the candidates and was a strong man, although not seeking the place particularly, as he received a nice increase in salary this year, and having a wife in his work at the head of the High school, which will assume greater importance upon the completion of the new $65,000 High school building that is being erected. There was a great deal more of school principal material than was obtainable the past few years, when there did not seem to be any at all for Scottsdale. Principal Reed who goes to Lebanon to assume charge of the schools there leaves the Scottsdale schools in splendidly organized shape, and with every prospect of a very successful year. Principal Reed received $1,800 per year, but the Board concluded to reduce the salary to $1,500. The Supply Committee held a session last evening after the regular meeting and went over the schedule of what is needed for the schools, and the contract for furnishing the supplies will be let at a later meeting. Picnic Meeting Tonight.

The Committee of the Scottsdale and Everett Business Mens Association will hold a meeting in the Borough building this evening at 8 o'clock by which time it is believed that all the committees will have their arrangements perfect for the big outing that is to be held at Idlewild Park on August 14, and they will be expected to render full reports of the progress made. Every committee member is urged to be present that the business may be promptly and successfully disposed of. This will be the biggest and best outing that Scottsdale and Everett has ever had, and there will be three trains of ten coaches each ordered for that day, so that there will be plenty of room for everybody to travel comfortably to the famous resort. The tickets will be carried in special cars, and each one will be checked by a committee so that tickets will not be bothersome that day.

A Bold Robbery.
The boldest robbery in a long time was the one that was made at the first and largest store of J. H. Ford, formerly of Connellsville, who keeps store in the Campbell block at Broadway and Market street. On the front of the windows, which line in the glare of lights, and where people are peering at all times of the day and night, there are iron bars running crosswise like a ladder, and some miscreants, probably youngsters, climbed up these bars and got into the store through the transoms over the door. There was about $1 in the cash drawer and this was $9 or $10 worth of candy and tobacco they got away with.

Hagerman-Lewis.
The marriage of Clifton B. Hagerman and Miss Sannie Lewis was solemnized by Rev. E. S. Bomer, pastor of the First Reformed Church of Greensburg, at the parsonage yesterday. After the ceremony the young couple left for a wedding trip to Atlantic City. Both are popular young people of town, the bride a daughter of Mrs. Leah Lewis, and they were employed in the store of H. R. Hurst & Company. They will live in the Overholt flat.

The Rev. E. R. Reese, a native of Fayette county and formerly pastor of the Moxham United Brethren Church, was in Johnstown this week as the guest of the Rev. J. S. Fulton, of Somerset, Presiding Elder of the Allegheny Conference of that denomination, arranging the details with the Elder for the seventy-first annual session of the Allegheny Conference, which is to assemble next month in the Second United Brethren Church of Altoona, of which the Rev. Reese is now pastor. The Rev. Dr. J. S. Fulton of Altoona, will preside, the session to begin on Wednesday, September 22d. The Rev. Fulton left Johnstown yesterday forenoon for Mt. Lebanon county to hold his last quarterly meeting there before the annual conference.

Man's Head is Severed From Body, Child's Body Horribly Mangled.
Akron, O., Aug. 13.—William Reed, forty years of age, a prominent business man of Wooster, and five-year-old Evelyn Trautman were instantly killed and Mrs. Guy Trautman, her mother, perhaps fatally injured by being struck by a passenger train while driving across the Erie tracks at North Center, near Barborton. Reed's head had been severed from his body and the child's body was horribly mangled. The woman lay unconscious beside the track and the buggy had been demolished.

Lyon, of the Consolidation Coal Company, operating some 20 mines and coke plants in Somerset county, and controlling thousands of acres of undeveloped coal in Pennsylvania. Mr. Lyon's appointment as Pennsylvania Manager, is announced in an official letter signed by President C. E. Watson.

Mr. Lyon has been a member of the Consolidation's operating staff ever since the formation ten years ago of the Somerset Coal Company, since merged with the Consolidation Coal Company. WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life,
says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Grantville, Vt. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and suffering from nervousness, nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia's Pinkham's

worth mountains
of gold to me, as it
restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell
my friends what Lydia's Pinkham's
Vegetable Compound
has done for me
during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of the suffering
women I am willing to make my trouble
public so you may publish this letter."
— Mrs. CHAS. BARCLAY,
R. D. Grantville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia's Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequaled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life.
It costs but little to try Lydia's Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

EDISON POURED CEMENT HOUSE.

Is All in One Piece as It Hewn From Stone.

MAY BE FACTOR IN REGION

In Great Mining Development—Fire-Proof, Water Proof and Vermin Proof Houses at Low Cost—Authorative Article on the Houses.

The epoch making cement poured house designed by Thomas A. Edison may play an important part in the physical condition of the towns that spring up about the many immense mining operations which require a large number of houses, and which are ordinarily built of lumber and of a sameness of pattern. The high price of lumber, the danger from fire that threatens such a building, and the tendency to become unsanitary, are factors that work against the construction of such habitations.

The Edison poured cement house has beauty of outline, stability of construction, is wholly a sanitary dwelling, and may be built at a very low cost, and in large numbers at one time. It is sold in one piece as it hewn out of stone.

The molds have been completed for the building of these houses, and it is the present cost of the molds that makes the individual houses out of the question, but makes them for a wholesale effort at home making a feasible quality.

Mr. Edison's famous laboratory at Orange, N. J., is working on the completion of this plan which has engaged his attention for the past eight years. The possibility of adding beauty to the house without additional cost is one that carries with it an appeal, and also shows on Mr. Edison's part an interest in the surroundings of the workmen, for whom these houses are designed. It could have made the molds plain and it was suggested to him by many people, but he went on the plan that workmen deserve ornamentation in their houses as well as anyone else.

The house molds are now complete and the houses will be put in construction and will mark an epoch in house building in the world.

The Cement World has made a thorough investigation of the Edison poured concrete house, and says authoritatively that the impracticability that engineers and other technical people acquainted with the properties of cement greeted the statement two years ago that a poured concrete house was an impossibility are disproved. The most frequent objection or criticism offered was the apparent impracticability of pouring concrete into an intricate set of molds and securing a surface throughout free from imperfections. "It will clog," "It will not flow," were objections voiced on every side. Then objections were offered on artistic grounds. The critics called attention to the preposterousness of a city in which the houses would all be alike.

Mr. Edison has answered all these objections to the full satisfaction of the most critical. The important facts that are presented are:

He has produced a house of a mixture almost like water which holds stones or aggregates in suspension, allows the mixture to flow freely to all parts of the mold, and secures a uniform distribution of the aggregates throughout the mass.

The molds are adapted to variations of arrangement, thus making it possible to change the style of houses with the same set of molds. With five or six sets of molds, therefore, a wide variety of styles is possible.

The houses if built of stone would cost several thousand dollars, or if built of brick or lumber would likewise cost but a proportion less. But if the operator of the Edison mold can build the house for $1,200, it is a house for one family, with a floor plan 25x30 feet, for a lot 40x60 feet, giving a lawn and small garden. The front porch extends 8 feet and the back porch 8 feet. On the first floor is a large front room 14x23 feet by 6 1/2 feet high, intended as a living room. In the corner of this room there is a wide alcove to the second floor, which contains two bedrooms and a wide hall and a roomy bathroom. The third floor has two large rooms. Each room has large windows. There is a cellar containing the boiler, wash tubs and coal bunker. The house is richly decorated, the decorations poured with the walls. An important fact about this house is that it will be entirely of reinforced concrete, including the roof, floors, bath and laundry tubs. The doors and window frames will be the only parts of wood or metal, so it will be practically fire proof. The mixture composing it is both water proof and vermin proof. The inside walls, stairs and partitions will be concrete also, and no plaster will be used. The surface left by the molds will be perfectly smooth and can be painted or tinted if desired. The cost of the house $1,200 includes plumbing and heating and a structure ready for occupancy. It will all be one piece as it hewn or carved out of stone. The price is where they are built in large numbers.

It will take six hours to pour the mixture, and four days later the molds may be dismantled, and six days more allowed for the hardening of the concrete. Fourteen days therefore for building the house.

ELKINS COAL WORTH 15 DOLLARS AN ACRE

President and Superintendent of the Elkins Coal Company Appear Before Board of Morgantown.

President Davis Elkins of the Elkins Coal & Coke Company and Superintendent J. B. Hanford interested in securing a reduction in the valuations placed upon coal in the Union, Morgan and Clinton districts testified before the Board of Equalization and Review at Morgantown.

The coal in Morgan, that is, the Upper Freeport vein, is valued at $35 an acre, and in Union, it is listed at $36 an acre. Mr. Elkins stated that he thought $15 an acre for the whole tract, about 4,000 acres would be nearer the "true and actual value." Mr. Hanford placed the proper valuation of the coal at about the same figure.

The witnesses explained at length that from one-fourth to one-third of the entire tract is practically worthless, as compared with the Pittsburgh vein. The vein decreases in thickness towards the west, and it is said that there are probably 500 acres in which there is no coal at all. The vein is three feet nine inches in thickness at the opening along Deckers creek, drops to 2 feet 6 inches, then to three feet and down the scale until there is only eight inches of coal.

These facts said Superintendent Hanford, have been determined by the actual mining operations and by drilling tests. The facts in regard to the Elkins tract are the same as in the Connelville Basin company's tract; coal varies in thickness and in quality, and the inclination of the vein varies from a grade of one per cent to a grade of 13 per cent.

Superintendent Hanford stated that the cost of a ton of coal at the Richard mine was from 24 to 25 cents greater than at the Bretz mines.

LOW'S NAME MENTIONED

As Successor to Ambassador Whitelaw Held at Court of St. James.

New York, Aug. 13.—Former Mayor Seth Low declines to discuss the dispatches indicating that President Taft will appoint him ambassador to Great Britain to succeed Whitelaw Reid. When asked about the matter at his summer home in Bedford, N. Y., Mr. Low said:

"I do not care to discuss the matter. I am not at liberty to deny or confirm the report."

As a former president of Columbia university, mayor of New York city and a successful business man, Mr. Low is believed to have met the requirements demanded of the incumbent of the London post. Mr. Low also has ample means with which to meet the social demands that are certain to be made on the American ambassador at London.

China's Representative Ordered to Peking For Further Assignment.

Washington, Aug. 13.—Chinese Minister Wu Tingfang has been recalled from Washington and ordered to Peking for further assignment. His successor will be Chang Yin Tang, formerly chargé d'affaires at Madrid, and now deputy vice president of foreign affairs.

The recall surprised government circles here. Dr. Wu has been the accredited representative of China in the American continent since March, 1908. His wit and interest in American life made him a popular figure. During his present ministry he became a convert to a vegetarian diet and announced he intended to live to be a hundred years old.

MAJOR GENERAL WOOD, MAP AND SCENES OF GREAT WAR GAME IN MASSACHUSETTS

Not since the Civil War has Massachusetts seen such a gathering of soldiers as will assemble for the war game of August 14 to 21. Defending Boston and attempting to repel the invasion of 50,000 men of the New York, New Jersey and Connecticut militia will be the 7,000 members of the Massachusetts militia, augmented by three troops of regular cavalry, from the Tenth regiment, now stationed at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt. The "fighting" probably will be confined to the counties of Bristol and Plymouth. The accompanying map shows the area over which the main operations will be conducted. The invaders will land their forces and attempt to fight their way through the State, but the defenders assembled in Boston will be notified as soon as the other troops land and will march out to defend the city. The problem of defense will be engineered by Brigadier General William A. Fow, Jr., of the Massachusetts National Guard, while the invaders will be in command of Major General Trasker, Jr. Bliss of the war college at Washington. All told about 20,000 men will participate in the war game, which will be umpired by Major-General Leonard Wood, U. S. A. A vast amount of property will be damaged, but adjustments will follow in the wake of both armies, paying off claims.

beyond the mere start of timid modesty.

Later, after the shock of Brooks' action had ceased to obsess her and he had ceased further and further toward a memory, she had set free her imprisoned inclinations. Once more he remembered fancy had taken wing to the heights of the ideal and romantic. Somehow it had come to associate Jimmy with its excursions. Possessor of his secret, she had set herself, while disguising her task with cunning, to the dangerous study of the heart that had held it so long inviolate. The knowledge that he loved her with such steadfast intensity rekindled love on the dead ashes her husband had left behind, and for the very reason that Jimmy betrayed his sentiments in nothing, held unwaveringly to the line of conduct toward her he had followed ever since she had refused to take seriously his offer of marriage, this love had grown stronger, fiercer, until it had filled her life. She saw that she had passed happiness by. She exalted Jimmy's secret passion until, in her laughing he became the incarnation of nobleness, of desire, of all mortal joys.

She brought a heap of blueberries to him and poured them into his joined hands, and they seated themselves on a rock to eat them and to rest. "This is the most enjoyable picnic I've had in years," she said gaily. "I've quite an inspiration of yours to run up to visit us. Why don't you come often instead of spending your week ends in this hot city? You ought to take a vacation and stay here for a few weeks."

"I'd like to awfully," he told her, "but the fact is I'm too busy to think of getting away. Williams is piling a whole lot of work and responsibility on me these days. Williams, you know, isn't what you'd call an easy boss. If he raises a man's salary he sees to it that he gets his money's worth. He simply won't be bothered, even with matters that ain't precisely details."

"It's because he trusts you, Jimmy," she assured him with an intonation perilously near to tenderness. "So you see," he went on, "it's easier to talk about holidays than to get them. I shouldn't be here now, for I'm working Sundays as well as other days at present, only that I had to come up on a matter of importance."

"Oh," she said, with a pout, "I thought you came to see us for ourselves, not on a business trip. No more berries for you."

"I came for the express purpose of seeing you and of talking to you alone."

Her heart fluttered violently, suffocatingly, again. "To me alone?" "Yes, I've seen Joe."

Inventory Month AT Union Supply Co., Stores.

During the month of July we offered many great bargains. During the early half of the month of August the bargains will be greater and more numerous than anything yet offered during the summer. It is inventory month and it is the month that everything must be cleaned out. Many goods are sacrificed and, as a rule, they are very choice lines. Overloaded, overstocked, cannot afford to carry them another year, therefore you are the one who is benefited.

Every woman within reach of a Union Supply Company store should make it a point to visit the place of business this month during this great inventory sale. There are numerous Odds and Ends and many unbroken lines that are being pushed out and are money-saving values to you.

that night just before you learned the truth I told you about that chap in

"Do you believe what you are telling me, Jimmy Smith?"

Denver who was long on love and short on honor and kind of took the view that it was his wife's place to overlook things and help him get right?

"Well, I'm still of that opinion."

"Do I understand that you—that you?"

She did not finish the sentence, but sat staring at him with wide eyes, stark with agony and amazement. "I guessed you'd be kind of surprised to hear from him. Since you left Joe he's been leading a strictly honest life. He has a good job in a bank at a good salary, has saved money, and all he wants is for you to forgive and forget and start over again. Joe's all right now, there's no doubt about that, for I've looked up the record—he's made since you've been separated. Not only that, but he loves you more than ever. That's gospel truth, too, I know."

"Forgive and forget? Yes, I have forgotten, and oblivion ennobles forgiveness with it. Joseph Brooks is dead, as dead for me as though he were in his grave. I have even ceased to hear his name. Sometimes I have wondered if he ever existed. If I remember him it is as one recalls a nightmare from which one is glad to have awakened."

She laughed a little mirthless laugh and, plucking a fern branch, began to pick the fronds from it nervously, letting them fall to the ground. "That's all very well, Emma," he objected gently, "but Joe is none the less very much alive, and he is your husband. You mustn't forget that ever. And he's all right, I honestly believe. If he did fall into temptation he meant well. He thought he could put the money back easily enough, and he wanted you to have more comfort and be happy. The best of us ain't no better than we should be if you come right down to the contemplation of the naked fact. You know that the book says, 'There is not a just man upon earth that doeth good and sinneth not.' To me the man who is real sorry for having done wrong, especially when his wrongdoing has such a pardonable motive as Joe's had, is as good as he was before he did the thing."

"You are the one man I know whom I would never have suspected of harboring a treasury of such homely platitudes," she said scornfully. "If it were only a question of forgiving a man who had sinned so weakly as that, but it isn't," he went on. "More is involved—his abolition and salvation by duty if not by love. Emma, you are Joe Brooks' wife. You took oath before God—and you meant it then—to stick by him in adversity as in prosperity, to help him in time of trouble. Your place is by his side now. Yours is the only hand that can guide him right."

She rose and placed both of her little gloved hands on his shoulders and looked into his eyes. "Do you believe what you are telling me, Jimmy Smith?" she asked gently. "Do you, speaking from your inner heart, order me to return to the arms of that man?"

He rose, holding her wrists firmly against his shoulders and speaking with intense earnestness. "Emma, there are some things on this earth that we're called on to do, ordained by an all-wise and merciful Providence. We may not like to do them, but it is not a matter of inclination. We have to make our decisions by the rule of right or wrong. Is it right or is it wrong? It's an arbitrary rule, but I guess it works out for the best in the end. It has always seemed to me so. Therefore I say go back to Joe, your husband. Joe pleads to you, heart that was his. Tell her," he said, "that I'm more sorry than I can express that I'm sorry and miserable. Tell her that there is no light in life without her. Those were about his words."

He released her wrists. She had listened to him at the last with averted face that was bloodless and looked ghastly under its coat of sun tan. She worked away, wrestling with herself, Smith stood as impassive as fate. But on his brow a dampness had gathered, and she had seen the sweat beads ooze there as he spoke.

The little cool clad form with its clinging shirt remained charge. "Jimmy, why did he charge you to tell me these things?"

"Why? I don't know. Because I'm his friend and yours, I suppose. Because there was no one else could do it."

And, like the good man you are, you were concerned in your decision by the rule of right and wrong. "That was about it, if you cut out the qualification of me."

KILL THE GERMS.

That's the Only Way to Cure Dandruff, and Parisian Sage is the Only Killer.

"Parisian Sage," said a New York barber, "will kill the dandruff, and persistent, germ, of dandruff, and banish the disease. There may be other remedies that will do the same, but I never heard of one."

And just read what one of the foremost barbers of Springfield, Mass., says of Parisian Sage.

Dear Sirs: "I used Parisian Sage and found it better than any other. It is the best hair restorer I ever used, and I have used them all. I find it a great dandruff remover also. You should get it into all the barber shops and get the barbers to use it, as it is great."—George A. Stiltz, 73 1/2 Main Street, Springfield, Mass.

Parisian Sage soaks into the scalp, and when it reaches the roots of the hair it not only kills every dandruff germ, but it supplies the hair with just the right kind of nourishment to put vigor and strength into it and make it grow.

Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world. It makes women's hair soft, silky, and luxuriant. Use it one week and you will like it.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by A. A. Clarke to stop falling hair, to cure dandruff, to keep hair from fading, to cure itching of the scalp, or money back.

It is for sale by leading druggists everywhere. When you buy Parisian Sage you get for 50 cents a big bottle of the best hair tonic in the world. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle of Parisian Sage.

In a heavy hitting contest yesterday the Cokers were tossed out by a single run, Grafton winning 9 to 8. Both Elmer Cannon and Johnny Yeast were hit hard in the early stages of the contest, Cannon being battered so badly that he was removed in the second inning after Grafton had scored six runs. The Engineers got three off of Yeast and then stopped. The Cokers got to Jones, but Manager Dan Riley yanked the walla slant and knocked Brennan in the breach just in time to save the game. Both teams fielded in snappy style and the game was interesting for the spectators. The batting of Myers was a feature of the contest. The score: CONNELLSVILLE, R. H. E. P. A. E. Cannon, 1b., 2 11 1 0; Morgan, 2b., 0 0 1 0 0; Hazen, 3b., 0 2 2 1 1; Cuthbert, 4b., 2 0 2 0 0; Myers, 5b., 2 1 2 1 0; Ryan, 6b., 0 2 0 1 0; C. DUNBAR DEFEATED THE M. P. TEAM THERE

Church Leaguers Completely Outclassed by "First Team" Yesterday.

The Dunbar "first team" defeated the Methodist Protestant team of the Church league 21 to 0 at Dunbar last night. The game was played only after considerable time had been lost making arrangements for the contest. The Church leaguers were completely outclassed in every department of the game. For the "first team" Blinger and Wainwright pitched great ball. The church team placed Cole, Porter and Smith on the slab, all of whom were batted hard. The Dunbar team will play Mason town at Cole Park, Uniontown, next Saturday to decide the championship of the county while on Wednesday, August 11th, St. Louis Stars, a team of such, will play at Dunbar.

Umpire Hurst Dropped.
Washington, Aug. 13.—President Ben Johnson of the American league announces that Umpire Hurst, who during a recent game in Philadelphia had a difficulty with Eddie Collins of the Athletics, would be dropped from the league.

POLICE BATTLE WITH STRIKERS.

Much Blood Is Shed in Fight at Fort William, Ontario.

MARTIAL LAW IS DECLARED

Striking Dock Laborers Resist. The Arrival of Special Canadian Pacific Police and a Pitched Battle Is Fought.

Fort William, Ont., Aug. 13.—Fort William for the first time in its history is under martial law. A thousand dock laborers, principally Greeks, Hungarians and Italians, who have been on a strike for a week, enraged by the arrival of special Canadian Pacific police from Winnipeg, were incited to riot and three hundred of them engaged in pitched battle with the police around the Canadian Pacific freight sheds. Two dozen men were injured, three at least fatally, including Chief Ball of the railway's companies local force and two Greeks. Chief Ball is dying.

Five of the wounded are Canadian Pacific special policemen, three are Greeks, one is a reporter, George Dickinson. Others are Sergeant Taylor of the city police force and John Lane, a butcher. Constable Carpenter of the Canadian Pacific force had a leg shattered and Chief Ball was shot in the stomach.

The officials of the Canadian Pacific have notified the mayor that they will fight the strike out to the bitter end. No peace will be considered until they are done with the Greeks. They were the inciters of the strike and would not listen to reason.

The strikers have twenty-five railway constables posted up in the Canadian Pacific railroad bunkhouses and shots are being exchanged. The city police department is absolutely unable to cope with the situation. The strikers are intensely aroused and they shoot in any direction regardless of who is in the way. Friends and foes look alike.

It is reliably reported that a well known Italian has lately made the threat that when the coal dock section saw fit to take the affairs of the city into its hands the life of the chief of police would not be worth a cent.

We Buy Fruit Jars in Carload Lots. These Prices Tell What This Means.

Putting up fruit is an absolute necessity. Fruit is going to be scarce this season or at least so we are informed. It will therefore be a little higher in price. So you'll have to save somewhere else. Part of this saving can be effected in the price of jars. We've tended to that as the prices quoted here will prove. We've set the price on fruit jars every season since we've been in business here and this year we're more than ever prepared to prove our power of superior value-giving. Below are the prices we're able to quote:
